Mr. Izudin Kapetanovic
Prime Minister
Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

Dear Prime Minister Kapetanovic:

This letter is to serve as an agreement in principle and precede a formal contract between the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (Federation) and Burson-Marsteller (B-M).

Under this agreement, B-M will provide public relations assistance to the Federation aimed to support and strengthen the Federation's position in the arbitration process concerning the city of Brcko. The terms of this agreement will run from August 30, 1996 through December 31, 1996.

B-M will finalize and implement a media and public relations plan with emphasis placed on reaching key Western media outlets, based upon the technical and financial proposals submitted to the Federation -- attached and incorporated here by reference.

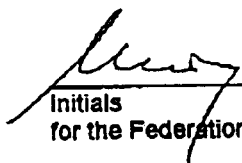

B-M will observe as ceilings the estimated budget amounts for both professional fees and out-of-pocket expenses listed in the attached financial proposal. B-M will not exceed either amount ($94,414 for professional fees and $23,050 for out-of-pocket expenses) without receiving express written approval from the Federation.

B-M will invoice the Federation at the end of each month for work performed and expenses incurred.

The Federation agrees to remit payment of invoices within thirty days after receipt of invoice. The Federation also agrees to remit an initial advance payment to B-M of $20,000 upon signing of this agreement. This advance payment will be applied against work to be performed and expenses to be incurred by B-M in executing work on behalf of the Federation.

B-M will provide the Federation with a formal legal agreement for signature during the week of August 2, 1996.
